FILE

I have to report that on the morning of 1-5-39, I interviewed Mr. LEWIS I. RAISIN of the American Film Advertising Company at his offices on the 7th floor of the Messageries Maritimes Building, French Bund.

Mr. Raisin stated that his company is embarking on a new form of cinema advertising in Shanghai, namely that of moving advertisements accompanied by sound explanation.

Mr. Raisin has a large suite of offices and a special room where he prepares the advertisements, working out the ideas for them himself. He ran me off several samples on the projector and these appeared to be of the type which would appeal to the public as a new innovation. He expects to place his advertisements in nearly all the Shanghai cinemas. The sound track was not yet available but Mr. Raisin assured me that it would be devoted exclusively to the advertisement of the goods shown on the screen.

DEPUTY COMMISSIONER 4 MAY 1939 CRIME BRANCH

On the morning of 2-5-39, I interviewed leading members of the film business in Shanghai and they stated that they had not been approached in any way by Mr. Raisin with a view to placing his products.

SHANGHAI MUNICIPAL POLICE 5 MAY 1939 COMMISSIONER'S OFFICE

Later enquiries made at the American Consulate-General showed that Mr. Raisin is a Russian born naturalized American-Jew. His passport, No.175921, was issued at Washington in 1925. He was married in Germany in 1923 and divorced in Shanghai on 12-4-38.
